Blame - who is to blame for the war	Germany	No one - no one can be blamed
Cost of the War	£2,000,000,000	£6,600,000,000	£24,000,000,000
Germany must pay - but how much	Reduced to 100,000 men. German Navy reduced to 36 ships. No conscription allowed. No tanks, submarines or aircraft to be built. All wartime weapons to be melted down.	Reduced to 250,000 men. German Navy reduced to 50 ships. No conscription allowed. Allowed to keep all tanks, submarines and air force.	No further conscription, though forces to remain as before the war. All armed services to be at pre war levels.
Germany military	The colonies are to be allowed to govern themselves as independent nations	France and Great Britain split the colonies and territories captured from Germany and Turkey.	The colonies are put under the control of the league of Nations until further decisions are made as to who is to run them.
Colonies	These were mainly in Africa such as Togoland and Tanganyika, plus lands captured from the Turks.	The League of Nations occupies the area so no one nation has it under control	Allow the Germans some control of the area with Allied supervision under the control of the League of Nations.
Rhine-land	The Allies take control of the area not allowing the German military to have a presence in the area	Germany allowed to keep it	Placed under the control of the league of Nations until a decision is made
The area that lies on the German side of the border with France.	Returned to France	Remain in Germany - the rich coalfields are needed to build the German economy after war.	Let Germany keep it - but half of any profit from the field must be given to the allies as war damages.
Alsace-Lorraine	Give to France for 15 years. The French need the coal mines to re build after war. Following this time the people of Saar vote to see if they want to be French or German.	Make it a protectorate under the League of Nations until a vote can see who should govern it.	Become an independent nation - this will cut off east Prussia (Germany) from the rest of Germany. It will have a port to trade with.
Once part of France, it was taken by the Germans in 1870.	Let the Germans keep it	Let the Polish have it	Make a free city.
Saar	To become independent nations	Place under international control until the consequence can be viewed.	N/A
